

St Ursula's Convent School

A Humanities College and Teaching School

Teacher of Science required January 2020 (MPS)

The Governors of St Ursula's Convent School invite applications from highly motivated, inspirational and outstanding teachers for the post of Teacher of Science from January 2020 or sooner if available.

The successful candidate will be responsible for assisting the Head of Department in strategically leading and delivering the curriculum, and will have shared responsibility for the overall effectiveness in providing the highest quality of Science education for all our students in our outstanding school. For the right candidate there is also the potential for the post to include a TLR.

We are looking for an inspirational teacher with a proven track record who:

- Has commitment to and understanding of education
- Has experience in raising standards
- Has excellent communication, organisational and interpersonal skills
- Is an outstanding teacher

The successful candidate will:

- Join a forward-looking, high achieving school
- Contribute to the wider improvement of the School.
- Be a driven and professional character that is committed to your students as well as your colleagues.
- Be joining a supportive department, who like to work on the same wavelength.

What we can offer you:

- Constant feedback outlines that the school is welcoming, friendly and supportive.
- A culture of distributed leadership.
- Opportunities and encouragement to develop both personally and professionally.
- You can ensure that your well-being is a high priority.

St Ursula's Convent School is an outstanding school where:

- It is a pleasure to teach
- Students are ambitious and aspire to be the very best
- All staff have exceptionally high standards and expectations
- Senior Leaders and all teachers are passionate about making a difference
- Governors are strongly supportive of the school.

St Ursula's is an outstanding, highly oversubscribed Catholic girl's school with a reputation for excellence. (Ofsted 2015, 2010 & 2007). As a Teaching School, we are strongly committed to the ongoing professional development of all staff.

St Ursula's Convent School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the wellbeing of children and young people and expects all staff to share their commitment. An enhanced DBS is required for all successful applicants.
