

PRIVACY NOTICE – LGfL GENERAL

OVERVIEW

Our Intent. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of schools and Data Subjects (you) using this website and all LGfL services and we will only use the information we collect about your school lawfully.

Data Protection Legislation. The European Union’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) govern the rights of Data Subjects, including processing of personal data in BridgeTheDivide. This Privacy Notice seeks to outline these rights and the way personal data is processed, to give Data Subjects transparency.

Data Subject’s Privacy Notice. This Privacy Notice should be read by Data Subjects, i.e. “you,” or any identifiable person using the London Grid for Learning (LGfL) services.

The Data Controller. This website <https://www.lgfl.net> and <https://www.ngfl.net> is owned and operated by LGfL. LGfL provide a number of services for Local Authorities (LAs) and schools (including nurseries and colleges), normally in the capacity of a Data Processor. This privacy notice is intended to provide an overview of how LGfL manages personal data, including on these websites, our enquiry forms for purchasing goods and services from LGfL and our training and events / conferences. For schools that do not subscribe to LGfL’s Let’s Get Digital subscription package or do not purchase supplementary services (Non LGfL subscribing schools), LGfL act as the Data Controller. Our contact details are:

- Email: dataprotectionenquiries@lgfl.net
- Mail: 9th Floor, 10 Exchange Square, Primrose Street, London, EC2A 2BR.

Data Protection Officer (DPO). LGfL subscribing schools - Your school to which you are associated with, will have a DPO who should be your first point of contact for data related queries as they are the Data Controller. LGfL have also appointed a DPO who can be reached at dataprotectionenquiries@lgfl.net. The LGfL DPO fulfils a number of roles, one of which is to be the primary and independent point of contact for Data Subjects, namely you. The preferred mechanism for Data Subjects to raise concerns regarding the processing of their personal data by LGfL is to contact your school to which you are associated with as they are the Data Controller. If you wish to contact LGfL, please email or send a letter to our contact details above, at which point the enquiry will be forwarded to the DPO of the respective Data Controller. Non LGfL subscribing schools should contact the LGfL DPO using the contact details above for all personal data related enquires.

Purpose of Processing Personal Data. We collect personal data on this website primarily to support the delivery of information to users of this website, to support your enquiry to purchase goods and services, provide customer training and for customers to request to attend our events and conferences. When using the Personalisation service on this website, we use your information to provide you with a tailored experience enabling you to save web links as bookmarks, making it easier for you to access your favourite LGfL online education resources. From time to time we may send you marketing communications relating to other LGfL products and services which we believe may be of interest to you by post, email, telephone or text. You may opt out of receiving marketing by clicking the unsubscribe link on any marketing emails we may send you or by calling our offices on 020 8408 4455.

Lawful Basis of Processing Personal Data. The lawful basis of processing your personal data when visiting this website, subscribing to our newsletters, requesting to attend our training, conferences and events and enquiring about purchasing LGfL services is considered to be either Legitimate Interest, or what is reasonable to expect or, “processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.” See our section on cookies below to see the different types of cookies we use and for what purpose on this website. When using the Personalisation service of this website, your consent will be required.

Purpose of LGfL Processing Personal Data Within Services. LGfL’s core purpose is to help deliver education services for our customers, which are LAs and schools. In this capacity we collect personal data for a range of educational tools, enabled by an identity access management tool, called Unified Sign-On (USO). See separate Privacy Notice for USO. LGfL will also use your data to support your enquiry to purchase goods and services to send you our newsletters and marketing information and to register you for attending training, conferences and events.

Categories of Personal Data Processed by LGfL. The information we hold as a result of visiting this website is minimal and primarily related to the device which you use. This may mean you can be associated and identified by this. More detailed personal data is collected when individual’s use specific services.

When using the Personalisation service of this website, subscribing to newsletters, requesting to attend training, conference and events or enquiring about our goods and services, we typically collect, with your consent, the following information:

- Your forename and surname;
- Your email address;
- Your telephone number;
- Your USO account name;
- Your school address; and
- Your teaching roles.

Across all LGfL processes and services we will seek to ensure all personal data is accurate and up to date. The personal data which we hold will be held securely and in accordance with our internal data protection and security policies. To see how LGfL securely processes your data, please see the Protecting Schools Data website.

Category of Recipients of Personal Data. LGfL acts as a Data Processor under the instruction of the Data Controllers, schools (which includes nurseries and colleges for the purposes of this Privacy Notice) and local authorities, to enable them to deliver education services. Data is shared with them in accordance with their requirements.

Transfer of Personal Data Outside the EEA (European Economic Area). Personal data will only be transferred outside the EEA or other areas of adequacy determined by the UK or the EU, to support specific processes. If this is required, appropriate measures will be put in place to support international transfers. LGfL may use the Google for Education Suite forms platform to collect the data about your enquiry for our services, registering for training, events and conferences. All personal data will be collected and managed within the EEA and transferred to the USA under Google’s standard terms for data processing.

Sensitive Personal Data. We will never collect sensitive personal data about you without your explicit consent or under the relevant lawful purpose. We will provide a clear explanation why it is required in the related Privacy Notice.

Data Sub Processors. LGfL works with a number of data sub processors and as new services become available or services are removed, they are updated on our Customer Data Processing document located here. LGfL recommends that you regularly check this document for an up to date list of all data sub processors that LGfL partners with.

Sale or Passing of Personal Data to Third Parties. We will not sell or pass your personal data to any company, other than our listed Data Sub Processors with your explicit approval. However, to support Safeguarding or Law Enforcement investigation LGfL may be required to pass personal data outside normal processes, for very specific and limited purposes.

Retention of Personal Data by this Website. We will retain any data collected on this website only for the period of the session or on acceptance of cookies to enable you to revisit the site again more easily. For LGfL subscribing Schools, we will retain your data for as long as you are an LGfL customer and it will be deleted as per our contractual arrangements with you. For non LGfL subscribing schools, we will retain your data for a period of seven years from the end of our relationship with you or until you unsubscribe from our newsletters about our products and services. You may request for your data to be deleted at any point before this period but this period enables LGfL to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or use it where we need to for our legitimate purposes, such as notifying you and your school about the range of products and services LGfL offers. If we do not need to retain information for this period of time, we may destroy, delete, or anonymise it more promptly.

Retention of Personal Data by LGfL. A master retention policy for personal data processed by LGfL is being constantly developed. This details the retention of personal data collected from you for different purposes.

Data Subject's Rights. Under data protection legislation you have a number of Rights which we have outlined below:

- Right of Access. You are entitled to access your personal data so that you are aware of and can verify the lawfulness of the processing. Where LGfL is not the Data Controller, this is best achieved through submitting a Subject Access Request (SAR) to the Data Controller, which is either the school or your home Local Authority (where you live). LGfL, and its sub processor Adept Education, will support the relevant Data Controller. If a Data Controller of an LGfL system requires any assistance, please log this via the LGfL Support Site at support.lgfl.net. In summary, Data Subject's (you) have the right to obtain:
 - Confirmation that your data is being processed;
 - Access to your personal data (a copy); and
 - Other supplementary information, which corresponds to the information in this Privacy Notice.

Fees and Timings. This information will be provided to you by the relevant Data Controller i.e. your school or LGfL, without charge; without delay and within one month. If an extension is required, you will be informed of this by the Data Controller. If requests are considered manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because they are repetitive, the Data Controller may choose to:

- Charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information; or
- Refuse to respond.

The reasons for this will be formally notified to you by the Data Controller and your rights to appeal to the appropriate Supervisory Authority, i.e. UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) <https://ico.org.uk> will be highlighted.

Identify Verification. To protect your personal data, the Data Controller will seek to verify your identity before releasing any information, which will normally be in electronic format.

- Right of Rectification. You are entitled to have personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete. If any data held about you is inaccurate or incomplete, the Data Controller will respond within one month of your request. In the unlikely event the Data Controller does not act on the request for rectification, the Data Controller will inform you of your rights to complain or seek judicial remedy.
- Right of Erasure. You may request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing. The Right to Erasure does not provide an absolute 'right to be forgotten.' However, you do have a right to have personal data erased and to prevent processing in specific circumstances:
 - Where the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose for which it was originally collected/processed;
 - When you withdraw consent (and this is the basis of processing);
 - When you object to the processing and there is no overriding legitimate interest for continuing the processing;
 - The personal data was unlawfully processed;
 - The personal data has to be erased in order to comply with a legal obligation; and
 - The personal data is processed in relation to the offer of information society services to a child.
- Right to Restrict Processing. When processing is restricted, LGfL, or under the instruction of the Data Controller, are permitted to store the personal data, but not further process it. In this event exactly what is held and why will be explained to you by the Data Controller.
- Right to Data Portability. You may request to obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes across different services. This allows you to move, copy or transfer personal data easily from one IT environment to another in a safe and secure way, without hindrance to usability. The Right to Data Portability only applies:
 - To personal data you have provided to LGfL directly or via the Data Controller;
 - Where the processing is based on your consent or for the performance of a contract; and
 - When processing is carried out by automated means.

In these circumstances LGfL will provide you with a copy of your data, or to the Data Controller, in CSV format free of charge, without undue delay and within one month. If there is a delay to this, you will be informed by the Data Controller.

- Right to Object. You have the Right to Object to:
 - Processing based on legitimate interests or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority (including profiling);
 - Direct marketing (including profiling); and
 - Processing for purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.

- Automated Decision Making and Profiling. LGfL do not employ any automated decision-making or conduct profiling of Data Subjects.

Cookies. This section outlines the type of cookies we apply to our websites <https://www.lgfl.net> and <https://www.ngfl.net>, our goods and services enquiry forms and registering for training, events and conferences. By using the website, our enquiry and registration forms, you agree your personal information will be handled as described in this Privacy Notice. The cookies we may use on our website and enquiry forms are described as below:

Strictly Necessary Cookies - These are cookies that allow you to use different parts of our website. Without them different features that you have requested cannot be provided. These are usually set in response to an action performed by the user like clicking on a link or failing to enter the correct password to your account.

Functional Cookies - These help us to make your experience within our site more personal. For instance, knowing if you have been on the site before so that messages for new visitors are not displayed to you.

First Party Cookies - These are cookies that are set by our website. And only we can read them.

Session Cookies - These are stored while you browse our site and then deleted once you leave.

Persistent Cookies - These are saved on your computer and won't be deleted when you close the web page. We use these to provide functionality when you come back to the site.

Performance Cookies - These help us to track how people are using our site. They help us to know what pages people are using most and how users navigate around the site, we use this information to make informed decision about how we can improve the user experience of our site. The information we get using these cookies is completely anonymous and we will make no attempt to identify you or influence your experience of our site while you are on it.

Third Party Cookies - These can be things like Google Analytics and other embedded content.

To find out more about the type of cookies Google forms use, please visit this link - <https://policies.google.com/technologies/types?hl=en>

How Do We Use Your Data? We use the data that we collect about you for the following purposes:

- To provide services related to your Account to you, to communicate with you about your use of our website, your Account and/or Services we offer or make available through the website;
- To respond to any enquiries, you submit to us for purchasing goods and services;
- To manage our relationship with you, including (unless you've otherwise informed us) telling you about LGfL products and services we think may be relevant for you and your school;
- To confirm your attendance at our training, conferences and events;
- To operate and improve the website and our enquiry forms for goods and services; and

- To better understand how users access and use our website and their Accounts, both on an aggregated and individualised basis, for the purposes of improving our website.

Third Party Website Links. Our website may contain links to other third-party websites. Any access to and use of such linked websites is not governed by this Privacy Notice, but, instead, is governed by the privacy notices of those third-party websites, and LGfL is not responsible for the information practices of such third-party websites.