

St Ursula's Convent School A Humanities College and Teaching School

Teacher of Maths, 2iC required for September 2024 Main / Upper Pay scale + TLR2 £3,214pa

The Governors seek to appoint an enthusiastic, innovative and committed teacher of Maths to help the Head of Department lead and further develop this successful department. You will have excellent leadership skills and you will be able to motivate, inspire and communicate outstanding practice. This is a brilliant opportunity for a well-qualified, highly motivated professional who is an outstanding classroom practitioner.

We are seeking a practitioner with the drive, commitment and passion for developing high quality learning and teaching that will enthuse young people and ensure continued outstanding results. Department results are excellent and the successful applicant will have the opportunity to work in a well-equipped, forward thinking, and dynamic environment.

The successful candidate will:

Join a forward-looking, high achieving school

Contribute to the wider improvement of the school.

Be a driven and professional character that is committed to their students as well as their colleagues.

What we can offer you:

Feedback outlines that the school is welcoming, friendly and supportive.

A culture of distributed leadership.

Opportunities and encouragement to develop both personally and professionally.

You can ensure that your well-being is a high priority.

In return, the school can offer a good working environment with opportunities and encouragement to develop both personally and professionally. Staff wellbeing is a high priority. We are based in a fantastic location with excellent transport links including the DLR, Elizabeth line and main line railways.

At St Ursula's Convent School students are ambitious and aspire to be the very best; staff have exceptionally high standards and expectations; Senior Leaders and all teachers are passionate about making a difference; Governors are strongly supportive of the school.

St Ursula's Convent School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the wellbeing of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS is required for all successful applicants.
